Who's That Girl (Boy)?

Anything is possible on JFK's Costume Day as a nun, a ghoul, and a cast of characters share some black and orange cake in the Cafeteria on Halloween.

You never know who will show up on Costume Day as evidenced by the Old Wise Man who left his mountain top to join in the festivities at JFK.

With Erica Hebert's 12 goals and a stingy defense, the Field Hockey team charges towards a memorable season, including its first win against Timothy Edwards Middle School in eight years.

Jennifer Quail is a picture of total concentration as she prepares to send the ball down the field. Efforts like this make a 5 - 1 - 2 record possible.

Many Thanks

Over the past 2 years, Ms. Jackie Carroll has served as the advisor for the Kennedy Cheerleading Squad. During that time, she has been a fine role model for her students and an enthusiastic supporter of the JFK sports program. Ms. Carroll's cooperation with the coaches has always been appreciated and she has instilled in the cheerleaders a sense of pride and sincere school spirit.
